

LOOKING FORWARD, LOOKING BACK

Take the opportunity to reflect on your time spent at the school. Memories are an important part of anyone's life and there are many ways in which you can recall and record your past experiences.

Keep important objects which remind you of the place you are leaving.

Recalling

Talk about the move to your parents, friends and relatives. Tell them about:

What you have enjoyed here? _____

What you didn't enjoy here? _____

What you will miss? _____

What you will be pleased to be leaving behind? _____

Talk to your parents about the memories you will be taking with you.

What can you do now that you couldn't do when you first moved here?

Write a letter to your new school telling them about you and your family.

Recording

Take photographs of friends, teachers, teams and the school.

Keep some items of school uniform, like a school bag or school cap.

Keep examples of your work.

Collect school magazines and newsletters.

Collect clippings from the local newspapers.

Choose up to six objects that you would like to put into a time capsule to remind you of the area you are leaving.
